PROPERTY & MAINTENANCE

DAVID LINDECAMP Moderator

It is not too soon to begin planning for our fall clean-up, please mark your calendars:

Saturday, November 9th, 2024 at 9am
Fall Clean-up at the Church grounds

If the weather does not cooperate, our rain date will be scheduled for Saturday, November 16th at 9am. We would appreciate some help, more hands help to lighten the load.

The fall cleanup at Moss Spring Cemetery will be announced at a later date.

A brief update on our activities:

PROJECTS STARTED:

In last month's newsletter, I mentioned several jobs that have been quoted and approved by the Session. As of this writing, neither job has been started by the contractor. We will keep you updated on the progress.

PROJECTS COMPLETED:

During 'the past month, we gave the shrubbery around the building some minor trimming. As mentioned previously, we had our summer clean-up a few weeks early this year due to schedule conflicts. Early trimming often allows the shrubs to continue to grow out during the summer, so just some minor trimming was done since it had been a really dry summer until late.

Until next month, Peace and Love in Christ!

WORSHIP

ANNE LAREW, CAROLE MALIN Moderators

What a relief to have had some rain and some moderate temperatures! Thanks God!

Our committee wants to thank Jim Papa for inaugurating the use of our screens in worship on August 18. He has shared with me that it will take some time for us to get the routine down and to train a team of volunteers to make it happen. There may be some Sundays where we do not have items on the screen, so please bear with us. We are getting feedback from some of our streaming worshipers that the new visuals were a treat for them to see before the service begins. We are asking for your forbearance and grace as we learn how to use these screens to enhance our worship and glorify God. Change is a challenging thing, yet it is a constant in our lives. We will strive to do this well. Please pray for the Worship Committee and the Technology team as we learn to use these new tools.

We also look forward to the Church Picnic on September 8th at Antrim Township Park. Bring chairs for worship and a dish to share as we will have lunch after our 10am worship service. Fried chicken! YUM!

God has blessed us through the summer with robust attendance in worship. We have averaged over 80 people in the sanctuary and 20-25 on line. We often see those numbers drop in the summer, but not this year.

Carole Malin is now co-moderating the Worship Committee with me, and Racheal Marconi Bowman is taking on the challenge of moderating the Christian Ed Committee. Thank you for your diligence in helping us schedule liturgists and communion servers over the last year. Please let Carole or me know if you would like to serve in either capacity this fall.

September blessing on you all, our church family.

HOLY COW!!!

On August 13, the Session and other church leaders participated in an online interpretation of the Congregational Assessment Tool (CAT) that you may have taken in July. The results were very interesting and encouraging. The Session will decide how and when to share the results and Executive Summary with you in the very near future.

A presentation requesting permission for a Pastoral Nominating Committee (PNC) will be made on September 12th to the Carlisle Presbytery's Commission on Ministry. Hopefully GPC will receive permission to form a PNC, a task for our Nominating Committee. We are making progress toward our goal of moving forward.

Our sample was considered excellent, with ninety-eight (98) responses in all. Thank you if you participated in the CAT. We look forward to sharing the information.

CHILDREN'S CHURCH- WE NEED YOU!

We are thankful to all who stepped in to serve our children this past year in the Sunday School room or Nursery. We will need more volunteers to step up to make Sunday School available to children each week. We average around 8-10 children a week. We have a ready-to-go curriculum available- some even have word-for-word scripts for what to say. Please sign up to volunteer once a month if you have children in the program. See Keri if you are willing to serve your church in this way. Below are the links to get your clearances if you don't already have them.

If we do not have two unrelated adults each week to serve in the classroom, Sunday School class will be canceled and children will need to stay in the sanctuary with their parents or guardians.

Thank you to all who donated crayons, scissors and glue sticks. Fifty-seven (57) backpacks with supplies were given to patrons of the G-A Food Pantry. In addition, 14 backpacks were given to the G-A School District for distribution to those in need. Contact the church office if you are aware of a student needing a backpack as GPC has three remaining to share.

Rally Day 2024

This day, which serves as the start of our Christian Education programs for the school year, will be on Sunday, September 15th. All are invited to Coffee Hour following the service for a light breakfast hosted by Special Events. Youth Group will also begin this night at 6pm. Children in grades 6-12 are encouraged to participate in this fellowship.

ADULT BIBLE STUDY

Jim Papa will be leading a Bible Study on Sunday mornings (beginning 10/6 at 8:45 am) based on a book entitled The Walk by Adam Hamilton. Please purchase your copy of the book ahead of time – available on Amazon, Target, Barnes & Noble, Christianbook, Thriftbooks, etc.

PRAYER BOOKMARKS

If you would like to have your child, grandchild, niece, nephew or young friend included in our Prayer Bookmark Ministry, please contact Keri Papa at keripapa1215@gmail.com. She will need a recent photo with the name, age, grade in school and hobbies to include on the bookmark. Members and friends of the congregation select a child or two and pray for that child throughout the year, with the bookmark serving as a gentle reminder for continued prayer. Keri would appreciate the information by September 8th.

"But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law. Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. Since we live by the Spirit, let us keep in step with the Spirit. Let us not become conceited, provoking and envying each other."

Galatians 5:22-26 (New International Version)

PASTOR'S COLUMN

REV. DR.
ROBERT COOK
Interim Pastor

Someone recently asked me what is the difference between justification and sanctification. I love it when I get asked these kinds of questions. They are central to living a Christian life.

Justification by faith is the opposite of justification by our works of obedience to the law. Basically, no one can work their way into heaven. It is God's free gift by simply believing. As Paul says it in Romans, "we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law" (Rom. 3:28). Imagine you are standing at someone's door. They invite you in. You believe their invitation is gracious and you trust them; so, you enter. It's that simple. "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and be saved." (Acts 16:31)

Paul also draws an enlightening contrast between the worker and the believer: "Now to the one who works, his wages are not counted as a gift but as his due. And to the one who does not work but believes in him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness" (Rom. 4:4-5). Recall that Jesus also teaches that the one who is justified before God is not the one who boasts in his or her own righteousness but the sinner who cries out to God for mercy. Now, sanctification is what we want once we are in the house.

Sanctification results from the supernatural presence and power of the Holy Spirit working in a Christian's life. It requires a change of heart, an alignment of the will with God's will. It is a work of grace in that God's Spirit is at work in the process of transforming you from someone self-centered, or afraid, or bigoted, or incapable of empathy to one who reflects the love and peace of Jesus in their heart and in their everyday living. It's a life-long process.

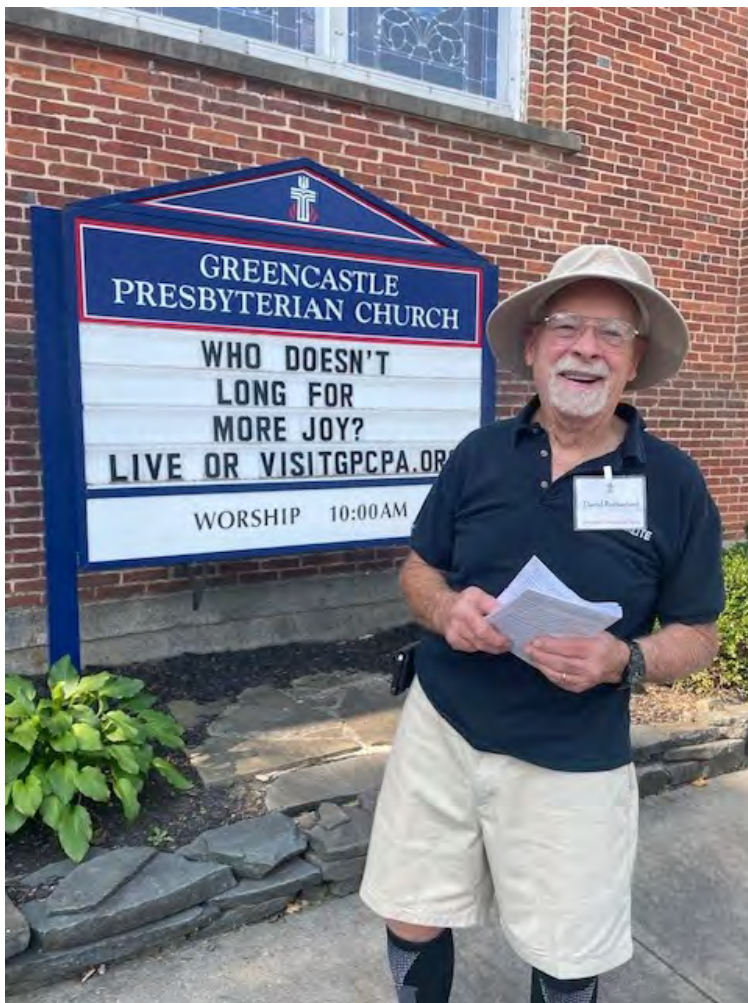

In its most basic sense, to sanctify something is to set it apart for God's special use and purpose. Therefore, God's people are sometimes said to be sanctified because they are set apart for God's special purposes in the world: "Consecrate yourselves, therefore, and be holy; for I am the LORD your God. Keep my statutes, and do them; I am the LORD who sanctifies you" (Leviticus 20:7-8).

Olympic athletes consecrate their daily life and living to pursue the skills and abilities needed in their particular sport so as to compete at the highest level. They strive to give it their personal best. A far greater goal is to pursue our friendship with Jesus so we reflect the values and teachings he shares with us as we read in the Gospels.

Garrison Keillor often talks about growing up in a small Christian group he calls the “Sanctified Brethren.” He speaks of the way they restricted their speech, the way they interacted with others who did not belong to their sect and the way they were to “shun the world and worldly pursuits.” Of course, Keillor is poking at the way his group practiced outwardly but really were anything by sanctified. They fussed and argued and treated one another poorly sometimes. Outward demonstrations of religious practice tend to make of us rather like the Pharisees Jesus spoke of.

Think of the process of sanctification as cooperating with the Holy Spirit in learning to live with our neighbors and love them. If justification is responding to the free invitation to walk in the door, sanctification is learning how to live with those in the house. Anyone who has lived in military barracks, or summer camp quarters or in college dorms knows that there will be those who are we are asked to accept them, care for them, respect them and learn to get along with them

different from you and may not share your values. You may never feel close with some. But we are asked to accept them, care for them, respect them and learn to get along with them. Often, God’s Spirit uses people we don’t understand as the edge-stones to rub off the rough edges on ourselves.

Curiously, we will find we don’t always see eye-to-eye with others in church. Creating a fuss, gossiping about another or simply ignoring them is definitely not what Jesus has in mind. Sanctification then is the process of growing us up as mature people who will care and appreciate others and not fear them or ignore them. If we cannot learn how to love others in our congregation, what do we have to offer to those beyond our doors?

We who are the Presbyterian congregation in GreenCastle have something very special and life-giving to our community. What we have is the presence of Jesus among us. And he is working through us to love one another and to share that healing love with our community. We have all been called and set apart through Jesus for this reason. So, sanctification is growing up and letting Jesus be seen in us. It’s how we become real followers of Jesus—and that is what we truly want to be.

APPLAUSE IN A WORSHIP SERVICE

From time to time in a worship service someone might offer a moving musical piece, a deeply felt song or anthem and we might offer applause. Some in our congregation have expressed concern and the opinion that applause is not appropriate during worship. Applause makes it seem that those being applauded have "performed" to please the congregation rather than offered their praise to God. And it raises the possibility that those who lead in worship may come to expect the applause and be hurt if others were applauded and they were not. What guidance do we have beyond our varying opinions?

We have guidance from the Bible and our Book of Order. Since applause almost seems always to occur in connection with music, instrumental or vocal, we should note that the Book of Order says,

"In worship, music is not to be for entertainment or artistic display." (W-2.1004)

This observation is made in the context of music being described as a form of worship by a choir or soloist or a musician. The appropriate response is not by clapping, but in saying "Amen."

We can never go wrong when we put God first.
